Cold, cold the night,
white, white the snow,
sharp, flashing in the icy moon.
And who as host will shelter give thy LORD & KING who cometh
soon?

No host; no house?
Rise up my soul
Thou hast a chamber in this breast!
Make clean the room,
set wide the door;
Thy KING shall be thy Easter Guest.

TUCK'S POST CARD

THE ADDRESS TO BE WRITTEN ON THIS SIDE.

Dearest Lizzie,

I am so glad the weather is fine, and I hope it will keep so. Did you have a good journey and get your basket all right. I searched diligently for "S. F." but all the 2 asters every policeman and barkeeper in "Sal" my diligence was unrewarded. I hope this will not spoil your appetite. No news to tell you, but I shall look for yours. Give my love to dear Chappie and also to Grandmama all brothers & sisters. How are the "babbies"? With my best love to you and hoping you are well

Ever your loving

Nellie
